

Betty Ruth Adcock

October 2, 1934 - November 5, 2023

Funeral service for Betty Ruth Adcock, 89, of Piedmont will be Tuesday at 2:00 PM at Thompson Funeral Home with the Rev. Ken Byford officiating. Burial will follow at Gnatville Cemetery. The family will receive friends Tuesday one hour prior to services. Survivors include her loving husband of 64 years, Virgil Adcock of Piedmont; daughter, Angla Battles (Phil) of Sand Rock; son, Jeff Adcock (Laura Williams) of Centre; son-in law: Wayne Adams of Cropwell; three grandchildren, Megan Watkins (Rod), Ashley Watts (Mike) and Brian Adams; two great grandchildren, Ellery Watkins and Weston Adams; sister, Katherine Pope of Piedmont and several nieces and nephews. Pallbearers will be Roderick Watkins, James Dorsett, Brian Adams, Phil Battles, Ricky Dale Jennings and Mike Watts. Honorary pallbearers will be the Alumni, Administration, and Faculty of the Alabama School of Gospel Music. Mrs. Adcock was a lifelong resident of Piedmont and was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. She had owned her own flower shop and served on the Board of Registrars in Cherokee County. She loved her family and spending time with them and was a wonderful cook. Mrs. Adcock was preceded in death by her daughter, Tamara Adams; parents, Marlin and Linnie Voils, and one sister, Bernice Vanderford.
