“ When Carlton and Cathy were young, just down from their house, I worked at Bobby’s Drive In, during the summers and on week ends they visited regularly. When he would come in, we would say, “well there’s HIM”. When Cathy came in it “well there’s HER” I also attended school with Mike and Melinda, so I would like to offer my condolences to you all.

Carlton, my friend, I always valued our friendship as greasy hands and a good laugh were our common denominator. May God bless your family's loss as well as mine, as you will now have the rest you so richly deserve.
