

Carolyn J. Glover

May 18, 1933 - September 14, 2019

Carolyn J. Glover, 86, of Piedmont passed away Saturday, September 14, 2019 at her home. Survivors include one niece, Rhonda Hernandez of Piedmont; two nephews, David Farmer of Piedmont and Bruce Farmer of Canton, Ga.; and several great nieces and nephews. Mrs. Glover was born and raised in Piedmont and worked for General Electric for 37 years. No services are planned.

Tribute Wall

MF

“ Kay Kay I remember when I was little and you would bring home green peanuts in a paper bag and share them with me out on the front porch. I was little so you would sing a song that went like this: Chew em up good, chew em up good chew em up goodie goodie good, and I had to chew until you finished singing the song that way you knew I wouldn't choke on my peanuts. I love you Kay Kay, Misty Lynn

Misty Fagan - September 16, 2019 at 02:47 PM

MF

“ 2 files added to the album Memories Album

Misty Fagan - September 16, 2019 at 02:46 PM

MF

“ Kay Kay it just rips my heart out that you are no longer here with us. I love you so much and will miss you dearly. Please kiss MeMaw, grandmommy and PawPaw Guy for me. Love you so much, Misty Lynn

Misty Fagan - September 16, 2019 at 02:18 PM