“ I am so sorry for your families loss. Charles and my husband Larry were good friends for many years and shared a special bond “veteran brothers”. I don’t know if they shared their experiences but, I do know Larry respected Charles and vice versa. Larry always called Charles “Charlie” and I never asked Larry why he had nicknamed Charles I just always thought it was cute. Larry and Charles also shared a love for Alabama football and watched many games together. I lost Larry October 2017 so I know in my heart they both were watching the Iron Bowl together today and both are taking about their win. I am a true blue Auburn fan but Larry and Charles today I will say Roll Tide and I miss you both!! Suzan Standridge
