“ Christian was loved by all of Piedmont. The funniest thing about that though is that he was love. He was the actual definition of love. I don't think there was any one person he came across that he didn't love. Just seeing Christian put smiles on all of the people he knew. You better not have came in contact of him without expecting to leave with a warm hug, and a smile on your face. That is what I will truly miss!

“ This little 'Angel' came into my life bouncing a basketball around with my youngest son..ALOT., but was in my daughter's class, and was a great friend to her all her life also..he became a true friend to the family in all aspects, whether it was just sitting around at times doing some homework in high school, or playing ball, or supporting a team my kids were on, that he wasnt even participating in..he was there..always smiling..always dependable, responsible,and loving..never left without a hug to his elders. We are gonna miss our sweet 'Angel' Fly High #6.Momma Pam

“ I am so sorry for your loss. No words can express the depth of my sympathies and condolences for you and your family. I know that the condolences may fall upon deaf ears for awhile as the shock remains, but I pray that once you get a moment to yourself you see that you not only have the love of our Holy Father but also the love of the community to lean on when days seem like it's too hard to stand on your own. I also pray that God's love comforts you and keeps you and your family through this most difficult time. Have faith and know that when the day comes the Holy Father and Christian will be there with open arms to embrace you and welcome you home. God Bless.

“ Christian and i were teammates at the Atlanta Sports Academy and we often would hangout before and after practice.I respected christian not only as a football player but as a person and friend. He was very down to earth and fun to be around.Christian helped me to become the top wide receiver on our team that year by challenging me everyday at practice and i really admired his work ethic.I still remember the first time i met Christian.He showed me his highlight tape from his senior year and i was so amazed i would ask to watch it everytime i would come over to visit him.To this day i wish i had a copy of it so i could watch it before every game i play for the rest of my career. I would just like to say that people like Christian are gifts from God to make impacts on the lifes of others and i want to thank him for being a good friend and thank his parents for raising i great young man. “ Christian was a special young man that meant a great deal to me and to the school system. He will be remember for years to come not only from his athletic ability but also for ray persona.

Like the song says, "I'm not crying because I feel so sorry for you, I'm crying for me!"

I know that he has earned his eternal reward and gone to be with God and I am so honored to at least had him in my life.
