“ Cory will always hold a dear place in my heart because we grew up together from a young age. Cody and I were the older brothers and Cory and my brother Paden were the younger ones. We rode bikes together every day. We made trails. We hunted. We made forts. We chucked rocks. We raced anything with wheels down the "big hill". We played Nintendo and Sega. We roamed all about these woods. We built a redneck Jacuzzi with red clay and stone that filled with clear water from mountain run off. We caught crawdads and frogs, lizards and bugs. We're woods boys. We did everything together. I watched Cory grow up to be a great man. He was a great Father, Son, Brother, and I am proud to say he was my friend. Cory's smile lifted everyone around him. Lord please be with Cody and the whole Westbrook family, in Jesus' name.

With love-

“ Anytime anyone spoke of Cory I always selfishly referred to him as "my brother". I don't remember a time in my life without him as we grew from children together. What was so special about Cory was how quickly he made so many others feel this same way. Time never seemed to be a factor as he had a way of making anyone feel loved so quickly. Cory had a heart of gold, and a contagious smile. Cory was two years younger, although he acted as a older brother would for me when needed. Anytime I veered off path, Cory had a way to pull me back straight. He was a perfect example as a father, brother, son, and husband I hoped to be. The entire Westbrook family will always hold a special place in my heart.

“Cory was fine young man, son, father, husband and friend. Cory loved his family so much his son Bently, his step children Leighton and Maddie. All his children were so special to him. They all referred to him as Daddy and they all wanted to sit in his lap every time he sat down. Most of all he cherished and loved his wife, partner, Michaela with all his heart. He was always the happiest when he had his family together with him. He was the best example of a family man that I have ever seen. His love for his Mother Patsy and his Father Jim was so unbelievable honest and sincere. While I have known Cory his love for Pasty's Mother his Grand Ma and Jim's Father his Grand Pa was amazing. He would tell me about them, and how much he loved being with them, his children always told me about going to see them. He loved his Aunts, Pasty's sisters and they loved him so much, he tried to help them anyway he could. Cory loved his job and his boss Jamie, he was a hard worker and he always went above and beyond to do a good job. I called Cory a lot checking on him, Michaela, and the Great Grand Kids. I will miss Cory so much and I know in my heart he has a special place in Heaven.

I will miss his smile and how good he was to everyone. He loved family gatherings especially good food. He was the finest daddy I have ever known. Rest well Cory, you deserve it. Nana

I remember the first day I met Cory and I knew he was special. I knew his heart was kind, good and sincere by how he carried himself and how he always treated my daughter. I couldn't have picked a better son in law. I have never seen a man love anyone as much as he loved my daughter. He adored her and she does and loves him so much. He was a wonderful giving father his children adored him and I will do all I can to keep his memory of him alive for them. He loved life and always had a smile on his face, always. I saw him 2 weeks ago and I wished I hugged him a little harder. I know he is in heaven looking over his family. Everyone loved you Cory and you will forever be missed.
