“ Aunt Dollie was kind. She never complained. She worked hard and knew how to budget. She LOVED her family, and she cared for others. When her mother-in-law (my grandma)...Ines Hardy, was alive and living in Piedmont, Aunt Dollie would make daily phone calls to check-in and see what she could do for her. She took the time to call her sister-in-law (my mom)...Irene Maguire, almost everyday long distance (even in her final days) to let her know that she was thinking of her. Puzzles and books were provided to my mother-in-law who was battling dementia, and Aunt Dollie made sure the books were in LARGE PRINT. I liked my aunt's distinct accent and the way she s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-d the syllables of her daughter's name...Valerie. Aunt Dollie was a good cook. As a child I thought she made the best strawberry pecan Jell-O salad, and she made sure to prepare it whenever we made the trip to Alabama. Even today...I have never had cornbread-chicken-dressing that is as wonderful as Aunt Dollie's! She will dearly be missed, and her random acts-of-kindness will remain in the hearts of all who have had the pleasure of knowing her.
Remembering my sweet aunt,
