“ Many years ago i knew you and your family, my name is Wanda Powell Martinez. I am the daughter of Charlie and Betty Powell. we lived in Montgomery Ala. My mother is still alive but we lost dad in 2000. the reason I'm reaching out was my mom whose memory is fading started talking about y'all. I was hoping to reconnect, but i am sending my condolences instead.

We had some good times back then! Now you are resting in the arms of Jesus and we will meet again one day. Praying for your family!

“ I met Doug through his wife Linda, and throughout the years of our boys growing up, he was always present for ball games, band performances, and school functions. We sat with him just last month at a countywide band expo and I remember Doug beaming with pride watching and listening to Riley's solo performance. What a blessing he was to my friend and her children, along with the rest of his family and friends. I am thinking of all who loved him, and praying for you all. I know he is missed and loved.

I am not sure what been said, but Calvin and I was talking about him last night. He was so kind and He never met a stranger. Always, I mean always helpful. Very smart, and always a gentleman. Never held back on anything and His faith was so pure, I know God welcomed him home with great joy. I miss him already 😭
