“ Kim- First and foremost we love you and we continue our prayers for you during this part of life's journey. David and I are going to miss this man terribly. He had kind of become a mentor for David. We have spent so many hours together over the past 3 years. The times shared sitting at that bar are priceless. He has been over here before you came back and suddenly jump up and say I had no idea of the the time. The trip to Mentone, the Cove, the Southern Harvest, and all the church gatherings will always be in my heart and memories. Your Father was a man of skill, knowledge, and humor. I always said I would not be sad if he passed before me because he longed to be with your mom- but I am so very sad that I can't text him at 11:30pm or 12:00 at night and get a cheerful reply. We miss our Church Leader, our ice cream maker, our late night friend and his wisdom. Now I must reflect on all those stories he wrote speaking of this day..... No goodbye, just see you later Mr. H....❤️
