

Estelle Leona Norwood

May 9, 1935 - April 18, 2020

Estelle Leona Norwood, 84, of Hokes Bluff passed away Saturday, April 18, 2020 at McGuffey Healthcare Center. Survivors include two daughters, Debbie Tubbs-Ludlow and Lynn Turner (Dennis) all of Piedmont; six grandchildren, Michelle Drake, Anthony Tubbs, Matt Jones, Christopher Jones, Stephen Turner, and Eric Turner; seven great grandchildren; one sister, Glenda Naugher (Wayne) of Piedmont; one brother, Dan McElwee of Auburn; and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Norwood was a longtime resident of Calhoun County and was a Christian. She enjoyed crafts, crocheting, music, the outdoors, and was a great cook. Mrs. Norwood was preceded in death by son, Ricky Jones; a great-grandson, Kerry Dan Jones; and her parents, Earl and Sarah McElwee. A memorial service will be announced at a later date.

Tribute Wall

TT

“ So sorry to hear about Estelle. She was a great cook and she was always nice to me and momma. Rest in Peace sweet angel.

Teresa and Betty Thacker - April 21, 2020 at 02:37 PM

GN

“ As i was growing up Estelle was my hero! She had a big heart and always helped people that needed help. She was a member of Methodist Church in Hokes Bluff but was not able to attend the last years of her life. She was a dedicated Christian and earned her wings to heaven. Fly high my dear Sister.

Glenda Naugher - April 20, 2020 at 09:31 PM

DT

“ Debbie Tubbs sent a virtual gift in memory of Estelle Leona Norwood

Debbie Tubbs - April 20, 2020 at 08:03 PM

MD

“ Michelle Drake lit a candle in memory of Estelle Leona Norwood

Michelle Drake - April 20, 2020 at 08:00 PM