“ Aunt Faye was the only person I know that loved Conway Twitty as much as I do. There was a time in my life she would come see us a little while every afternoon after dinner. We loved talking about his “new release” and some older favorites! I’ve NEVER listened to him w/o thinking of her. I definitely will now. Gene Watson was another favorite of ours. And her cakes were to die for! I can remember calling & asking her if she had a piece of cake & she’d say “I do. I’ll see y’all in a minute!” And she was definitely “the hummingbird whisperer.” I always looked at her ocean blue eyes & could see my daddy’s eyes. They had the most beautiful blue eyes. I can remember playing on her storm shelter. The top was angled & cement, easy to climb. Memories are tucked away to make us smile & reminisce. But tonight they are just making me sad. But she is enjoying herself right now❤️

“ I'm so sorry hear this! Faye was a big part of my life growing up, she was always so much fun and so nice to me. I spent all my summers with the Wade family on Weiss lake. They taught me to water ski and fed me good food. Those are times I will never forget! I will always cherish those memories and all of the Wade family! Rest in peace sweet Faye!
