“ *I met Frank 8 -10 years ago at Fort Payne City Dump. I was unloading bricks off of my trailer, looked up on a hot dusty summer day and saw the closest thing to a real modern day cow boy , or was it Chuck Norris, headed my way that I had seen in a long time.
He struck up a conversation and we have been great friends and Co workers in construction since that day. Frank is honest, witty, and one of the hardest workers I had ever worked with. He is the kind of guy you can count on night and day to be there no matter what I needed. I have missed him greatly this passed year and will continue to miss him. His loyalty, smile, joking, and steadfastness cannot be replaced. I pray for all of his family and friends cause he will be sorely missed.*

Scott, thank you so much for sharing that memory with us. Daddy adored you and definitely knew if he ever needed anything, you were the one who would be there. Thank you for being such an amazing friend to him.
