He was a well-known businessman and was owner and operator of the Piedmont Pallet Exchange as well as H & H Trucking. Fred devoted his life to God and his family. He lived each day with a desire to help someone or anyone less fortunate than he was. He was a giving man, never asking for anything in return. He had rather serve than be served. Scripture tells us God loved a cheerful giver and he was always a cheerful giver, helping in many ways that went unseen. He never expected anything in return. If you were blessed enough to know Fred , you know that was one of his strongest attributes. He enjoyed people and lived life to it's fullest. He was a friend that greeted you with a smile and you always left feeling better than when you came. He will be truly missed but will live on in our hearts forever. The family ask that you not send flowers, Fred would have wanted memorial contributions to be made to the CrossPlains Church in his memory. Memorials may be mailed to CrossPlains Church, PO Box 828, Piedmont, AL 36272.

“ *My first and favorite memory of Mr Fred.....
My husband and I moved away from all our family and friends to Piedmont from outside Atlanta in July 2019. The house we bought had been vacant for years - and it was in Mr Fred's neighborhood.
My husband was outside trying to cut down a tree in our yard, when an older gentleman in a big service truck pulled into our driveway.
He introduced himself and told us he could take of that tree for us.
My husband asked him what he would charge to do that - and Mr Fred answered with a shocked look on his face and said - I didn't come up here to get anything - but just to see if I could help you since you're my neighbors. We welcomed his help, and his friendship. He invited us to his church and left us feeling a lot less alone He is already dearly missed !!!!! My husband and I are both sick at home and unable to attend his home going - but we are with the family in Love and Prayers ❤️🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏

“ Words cannot express how sorry we are to hear of Fred’s passing. Fred has always been like a best friend and a brother to me. We worked at the Sawmill for years together, then Fred became my boss when he started Piedmont Pallet. Fred was a good man, loved his family dearly. He loved pulling jokes on people and making you smile. He will be missed for sure! We will be lifting the family up in our prayers. We love all y’all! 🙏❤️
