“ Fred was active and always busy until these last months. I have known Fred since I was a young girl, when I would get to play “kitchen” with his daughter Wanda. It was because of his gift of building things she and I played with that play stove , sink and cabinet. I mentioned that to him a short while back and he said he still had that stored somewhere. He was always somewhere near through the years in Rockrun. He loved to display his work in his yard and loved visitors to stop in and inquire. In last few years he enjoyed driving his white mustang. Not long after he got it he asked me if I wanted to drive it and of course I did. He said “ put some gas to it” and I did that too. Fred had a good long life and seemed to live it to the fullest. Rest in Peace neighbor, friend, kin folk , and fellow church member. ❤️
