I grew up with Michael in church many years ago and his family became my family. He was always that one who could make you laugh no matter what the circumstances. We lost touch with each other for a while but reconnected a few years ago. Michael my brother you brought many smiles to my face over the years and I know you are smiling in Heaven now. One day we will all be together again. Until then I will cherish the memories. Love you my friend.

“ I remember Michael as the cute little cousin who ran around with all us cousins at Christmas at Grandma Brown's. He was the baby of the group so he loved to wart us all. Years later he was the one who kept us laughing. He had a good sense of humor. Great memories of a beloved cousin. My dear family, uncle Garry and Aunt Linda, Cynthia and Shannon, Erin and Lexi, Melinda and Joel, Josiah, Jessica, Nathan, and Emily, praying for the God of all comfort to be near and give you peace. With all my heart, Laura
