“Daddy, I am so glad you passed onto heaven's gate in such a peaceful way. I made you promises that I'd take you home to be with Mother. I am so blessed I was able to fulfill that for you. We talked a lot about what you wanted & to I promised I be sure your wishes were fulfilled. I will do this for you so may rest at peace. I miss you so much already. I think of you all day long & dream of you at night. My children & grandchildren Ollie miss you so much. The world was a better place with you in it! We are better people for having been blessed by being loved by you & also loving you! Rest in peace Daddy. Until we meet again.

“My prayers go out to Harlan's family. Harlan worked for my father for several years and I distinctly remember how polite and helpful he was.

Harlan will be missed.
