

Hilda Grace Jennings

October 2, 1934 - March 13, 2015

Grace Penny Jennings of Hokes Bluff went home to her heavenly home on Friday, March 13, 2015 at Emory Hospital in Atlanta, with her family gathered around her. Grace was a career nurse, and she carried that over into her personal life as well. She helped many people over her 80 years, and she will be dearly missed. Grace was a member of Union Grove United Methodist Church, but had attended Hokes Bluff First United Methodist Church since moving to Hokes Bluff in 2009. She is survived by her only child, Douglas Jennings, daughter -in-law, Tammy Jennings, and grandson, Brody Jennings all of Hokes Bluff. She is also survived by a sister, Jane Simmons (Marvin) of Jacksonville, a brother, Basil Penny (Mary Ann) of Piedmont; brothers-in-law Edward Sherman of Jacksonville, Willard Jennings and Forrest Jennings (Pat) of Spring Garden, sisters-in-law Carolyn Studdard (Mack) and Shirley Stephens of Piedmont, and Ann Matthews of Centre. She is preceded in death by her husband of 51 years, Jack Jennings, Sisters Lora Dean Smith, Vivian Harding, Esther Sherman, and brothers Bryson Penny, Gerald Penny, and Curtis Penny, and her parents, Gilbert and Cordie Penny. Grace worked as a nurse at Piedmont Hospital, Gadsden Regional (as assistant nursing director), and retired as nursing director at Jacksonville Hospital. We will honor Grace at a funeral service at Thompson Funeral Home on Monday, March 16, 2015 at 2 P.M. with the Rev. Steve Baccus presiding. Burial will follow at Piedmont Memory Gardens. The family will receive friends from noon until time of service. Pallbearers will be Jeff Simmons, Chris Sherman, Trent

Penny, Barry Penny, Jeremy Penny, and Dewey Pruitt. Honorary Pallbearers will be Andy Harding and Eldon Smith. The family will accept flowers or memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association.

“ Grace was a great nurse and lovely person. I remember her tenure at Piedmont Hospital and how caring she was with every patient she came in contact with.

She will be missed.

God bless the family.
