“ Uncle Bud, he was always just HC to me. He was more of a big brother than an uncle. I have many happy memories of him. When I lived on the farm as a young child, he was still living at home. One of his favorite things to do was squirt milk at me when he was milking a cow. He was a good guy through and through. I know he is now happy to be back with Aunt Joyce, the love of his life. Until we meet again, HC. All of us will miss you.

“ I am sorry for family's loss of Bud. It's been a long time since I saw him, but I'm sure he will look 50 years younger when we all see him in Heaven. May the Lord comfort and bless all of you with Precious Sweet Memories and a Vision of seeing him again on Heaven's Streets of Gold.
