“ We are so saddened to know that Mr. Hugh has passed away. Mr. McCord was a wonderful example of a Christian man who "lived what he preached". He and Mrs. McCord influenced many of us who grew up under their guidance at Dailey Street Baptist Church. We know that even though the family and community have lost a very special person from their lives, he lives on with his Lord and Savior in Heaven today. Hopefully, that will be some comfort to his precious family who are missing him so much. We love you and are so sad that we were not able to be there with you. He was special to us. Phil and Towana

“ My deepest sympathy on loss of your dear loved one. May the wonderful memories you have made with him over the years continue to be in your hearts and mind. Like Lazarus, may he too also hear Jesus voice say, come out! (wake up).
