“ I'm sorry about Ima Jean passing except for knowing that where she is now, there is no more pain nor sorrow. I had hoped to be at the visitation but that didn't work out. The last 2 times I saw Ima Jean was in a grocery store in Piedmont and the Piedmont Congregational Holiness campground. We always counted ourselves as friends and Sisters-in-the-Lord. We will see each other again in Heaven, the place where our youth will be renewed! What a Time we will have in Glory in the Presence of Jesus who gave Himself for us!
