“ Ms. Howell such a beautiful lady inside and. A true servant and willing vessel for our Lord Jesus Christ.

She loved with all her heart ❤️. Even the unlovable. A bright light upon the hill shining out through the night leading others to the fold. I cherish every minute we shared, especially bragging on God and love for one another. Loving our neighbors as we love ourselves, as God commanded us to do so. Sister Jean was a true Proverbs 31 Woman.

PROVERBS 31:10-31

Helps in knowing her and loving her so much. Praise God this is only a temporary separation, as we know from God's Word. God tells us that we will be known as we are known in Heaven.

Hallelujah to the Lamb of God.

Ms. Howell now walks by sight, unlike us who are behind where as we are left to walk by Faith!!!

GLORY HALLELUJAH ❤️

May the winds of Heaven blow softly and hisper upon your ear, just how much we love and miss you here.

Love and Prayers for all her family and friends in Christ Jesus.

“ *I will always remember her for her sweet smile and kind eyes. She always greeted me with open arms when I would return "home" to Dailey Street for a visit.
Rest in peace, Mrs. Jean.
