“ Being James oldest cousin (son of Clemance and Eunice Roberts Williams Bittle) it's easy to say I've known him all my life (I'm almost 9 years older) and it's with some sadness that I write this. I spent a lot of time with Mamaw and Grandaddy Williams and of course Uncle Bobby , Harvey to a lot of folks (more like brother,only a month and day separate our ages) I spent a lot of time with them and of course Aunt Junita and Uncle William Key (Bill to most folks). Don't know who tormented who the most, Bob and me to James or James to Bob and me. As fate would have it I moved to Ragland in 56 and after graduation joined the Air Force. Kept in touch with him off and for the rest of the years. Always tried to make a point of contact with I came back, Its with sincere condolences and deepest sympathy for his immediate family(and the rest of us) and many friends that I offer this.I'll close with a little tidbit that I've grown fond of "Memory is one gift from God that death cannot destroy" so always keep him in mind". And if you think about calling or going to see someone, do it cause tomorrow may be too late. God bless and take care.

“ James was my first cousin. His mother was my father, Claris Wallace Williams sister. We visited James and family during holidays and summers when we would visit our Grandmother Williams. My sisters and I would also spend the night in their home. When we were small they had a small home in the woods with an outhouse. My Aunt Juanita would always make him escort us at night with a flashlight. On another occasion, James got a motorcycle as a teenager and rode over to grandmother's house. On a dare she climbed on and rode it down the highway with him for several miles and back .He also took me and several sisters for a ride. James and some of his friends built a log cabin treehouse in the woods on a back road. near my grandmother's house but declared it off limits to any female. James was quite mischievous and chased a skunk up under my grandmother's back porch where it sprayed and stunk for several days. James also bought my grandmother a car tag saying "Hot Rod Granny" because she always drove her car fast down the highway from church to home.

We had lots of fun as kids and he will be greatly missed. I wish all of his family my condolences and look forward to a family reunion one day in heaven.

“ So sad to learn of the death today of my first cousin, James. James' mother Juanita and my daddy Edsel were extremely close sister and brother. James and I have not been in much contact until recent months when we started exchanging messages on Facebook just about every night. James, four years older, shared so many memories about our grandparents, Audrey and Harvey Williams of Oxford — memories I will cherish as I do not remember my granddaddy Harvey, and James did. Two of them, James saying that granddaddy Harvey was the finest person that he ever knew. And the other, James and his family going over to my grandparents house on Saturday nights to listen to the Grand Ole Opry on the radio. Neither family had a television. RIP, cousin James. Your obituary was beautiful especially the scripture at the close.

“ I met James when I was going to New Oak Grove Church. He was a true man of God. He would tell me stories about my husband and himself from when they were young. He was the sweetest man. I am so sorry for you all Ann, Tracy, Jamie and family. James is healed now and sitting with Our Lord and Savior looking down on all of us saying you will be so amazed when you meet our God face to face. I love you all and praying for God's Grace.
