“ Hunter was the cutest little boy growing up..most beautiful head of hair I had ever seen..he was in my oldest son's class..shared baseball teams along with him. Hunter was always polite, soft spoken and kind to me. He will truly be a 'special angel' for God to do wondrous work with. That might just be why he had such a shining light of color on his head..it just could have been his little 'ring' he was earning here on earth ..just a little bit early. God speed Hunter..light up the world!!
