“ I'm so sorry for your loss Judy and all of you kids and grandkids and other family members. My heart breaks for yall to go through this but I know God is with you all and he will help you every step of the way. I will never forget how he watched over the place when I was gone or at home and yall always made sure we were safe during storms and shared your storm shelter. You are truly one of a kind friends and neighbors . I've missed being home so much ,we take for granted people will always be there but that's not always the case . I love you all and I will be by for a visit soon Judy .
