“ Bro. Dyer was truly a man of God that loved everybody! I was in many church services with him during the last 10-12 years. I learned very quickly that he was a jokester as well. He always loved a good laugh, but more than that he loved his family. He and Mrs. Shirley were like two peas in a pod and Amy was his apple in his eye. Oh, and there's that grandbaby. I'll miss him as will countless others. I'm coming brother...ONE DAY!!!

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Jerry, he was a good and understanding person. I have missed his sermons that he preached at Daily Street Baptist Church. Thank you so very much for being a part of my life at church.
