“ I did not know Jesell and may not know any of this family but I would like to make a request. My dad, J. E. Vanderford, went with some other gentlemen to pray for a Mr. Christopher who lived in a small house just beyond the old brick yard (this was over 50 years ago). The gentleman died a day or so after dad was there and the family requested that my dad speak at his service. I have been trying to connect with some of the family for months now because I was not there when all of the above took place. If you can give me any information about this I would be grateful.
