“ My Uncle John was a dear friend to me and he will be missed in so many of our lives. He added a richness and love to our family with his kind spirit and quick wit. "Papa John" enjoyed life and adored his family. He loved the Lord and his church family. Uncle John was always the first to offer his help to me when I needed it most, and to my mom and dad as well. To his loving wife Gaynelle, his son Ray, and daughters Carol and Deb, his sister Avis, and all his many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law, I extend my deepest sympathies. Thank you Papa John for your love, help and encouragement these past many years.
