“ Even though I haven't seen Joe in many years, I always remember his smile and kindness. He sat behind me in middle school. My last name was K and of course his was L. I would always turn around and talk to him. I would always get in trouble, and he did sometimes as well. He never complained or told me to stop getting him in trouble too. A great guy. RIP Joe. Heaven certainly gained another angel. Thoughts and prayers to the family. ❤️🙏

I hadn't seen Joe for many years, but remember him fondly as a kind and funny guy. He did work on my house a long time ago and was so nice to be around and did an amazing job. Thanks Joe, and rest in peace.

“ I consider myself blessed to have worked with Joe also. He was one that you always wanted to shake his hand and see that great smile as he shook yours. He would always ask about your family like he really cared. Don't think they make them like Joe anymore, he will be greatly missed!

Since our meet up did not get to happen in person in Alabama on Feb. 13th I know someday we will meet again. Time marches on and your passing is a reminder of how quickly. Until we meet again. A special thanks to your family for keeping me posted during your final days.
