“ Enjoyed and shared wonderful times with Judy. Judy's smile was always a special greeting. Judy and Bobby treated us wonderful and made us feel welcomed in Piedmont.

Bobby, we are so sorry for your loss and you are in our prayers.

Greta, Jeff (Ann) and Demi, family and loved ones: We are so sorry and share in your loss for a wonderful lady.

Our love and prayers are with you.

“ I'm sorry to hear of this and sorry I could not attend services - no one told me. I have very fond memories of Aunt Judy teaching me BlackJack and her toy poodle and going fishing and grilling and swimming at the lake. She was one of the few people I can say genuinely touched me and shaped me, accepted me the way I was, and loved me unconditionally. I return that love in turn.
