“ Buddy was always laughing and cutting up, it was never a dull moment when he was around. I have many fond memories of him. Some of my favorite are of him at the auction, it was always a good time. He was a man of God and it showed in the way he lived. He married my husband Terry and I and then preached Terry’s funeral when he passed and he preached my daddy’s funeral too. I’m so blessed and thankful to call him my family. I will miss him dearly and love him so much!
