“ My memories of this sweet lady include talking to her when she was a child, watching her play when spending the night with her sister Louise, and spending time talking to her when she worked for my Dad. I enjoyed following her on FB and hearing Louise talk about Kathy's boys. It was clear how proud Kathy was of her family...sister, husband, sons and grandchild. God bless this family and help them in the upcoming days as they strive to adjust to life without their Kathy.

“ We are so heart broken over the loss of our beloved friend Kathy. You two have been in and out of both of our lives since 1970's. We know that Kathy is in Heaven but the Lord knows how much we miss her. We've laughed, we've hugged, we've shared. We have and will continue praying for the family. Know that we Love you so much Much, and may God surround you that you may feel his everlasting Love and Comfort.

“ May the love and support of family and friends of Kathy Boles give you strength to cope with your loss. And may the comforting promise found at 2 Thessalonians 3:16 be of comfort. That "the Lord of peace himself give you peace constantly in every way. May the Lord be with all of you."
