*Kay was a very loving mother ,
Friend and we shared many moments about our loving children
We laugh a lot she was a happy person and we shared lots of fun times with our children. During Thanksgiving and Christmas together When we could. I WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER YOU Kay you were our family and good friend. So glad you and Jim stopped for lunch with your Sweet daughter in January when we shared a snack together as u took the time to come by for that last visit to see me before I moved.
Take care my friend we will meet again.*

“Kay was a great lady. I always enjoyed her company when she and Mr. Daniels would come to Express Oil for service. She certainly was a bright spot when things were gloomy. She will be sorely missed by many.

Praying for the family. Jerry Stewart (Former Manager at Express Oil Change)

“*For over 50 years, Kay was my friend. The precious memories I have! My heart aches for Jim and family. Many prayers for you all as these next days will be hard without her. Kay is at peace now, no more pain. She has a new body. She is in the presence of Jesus.
My love and prayers.*
