

Leroy Warmack

December 22, 1928 - March 1, 2015

Services for Leroy Warmack, 86, of Piedmont will be Tuesday, March 3, 2015 at 2 p.m. at Thompson Funeral Home with Leroy Austin officiating. Burial will follow at Nances Creek Cemetery. The family will receive friends Tuesday from 12-2 p.m. at the funeral home. Mr. Warmack passed away Sunday, March 1, 2015 at his home. Survivors include five children, Wanda McGatha (J.C.), Denise Fortenberry (Gary), Karen Warmack, Becky Warmack, and Lesa Hightower (Tim) all of Piedmont; Eight grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mary Burns of Nances Creek, Hazel Steed of Piedmont, and Nancy Doss (DeWitte) of Jacksonville; one brother Edwin Warmack (Bobbye) of Jacksonville; two chosen children, Pam Roberts and Deb and Ronny Bruce; and several nieces and nephews. Pallbearers will be Vaughn Adair, Brent Trammell, Cody Burns, Donnie McGatha, Doug Warmack, and Wesley Steed. Mr Warmack was a native of Nances Creek and a resident of Piedmont for many years. He was a member of Asberry Baptist Church, a member of Independent Order of Oddfellow Lodge 524, and a Grand Master in 1995-1996. He was a loving and special Father and Grandfather. He was preceded in death by his wife, Vivian Warmack and great-granddaughter Hanah Watson.

Tribute Wall

GT

“ So sorry for your loss. Leroy will be missed by all who knew him. Some of my favorite memories of Alabama include Leroy. He always made me smile.
Love Gwendolyn

Gwen Thigpen - June 20, 2018 at 04:10 PM

DB

“ Leroy worked for my father many years ago and I remember him well. Leroy was a fine person; loved and respected by all that knew him.

May God give comfort to Leroy's family.

Dr. Edward Blackwelder - June 20, 2018 at 04:10 PM