“ To Lillie and her family, My prayers are with you as you go thru the holidays. I pray God wraps his arms around you and give you strength, comfort, love, and understanding, Mac was always a loving husband, his family always came first. He loved Alabama Football and the races at Talladega. He lived life to the fullest. He had many, many friends. He could always keep everyone laughing that was around him. May you R.I.P. Mac
