“ I knew that Marla Kay had been sick. After I got married and living in the Mobile, Al. area, We were in Piedmont, and stopped by to see Marla. The best thing any one could ever say about a person, "She was the same person I had known all my life. She was talkative, smiling, and of course she was working on some sewing." Our families have known each other for ever. I love all of you, and am so sorry for your loss.
