“ Marlene, though we have never met in person...I have had the privilege of meeting you years ago online. You have been a true friend...one that I have come to love. I can not even find the words to say...word's to give you comfort. However, I am praying for you and your family continuously. Rest in the Lord's arms...though it may not feel like it right now...He will see you through this. Gentle hugs dear friend.
