“ Meri’s sweet soul was always ready to welcome another life into it, whether it walked on two legs or four. I will forever remember her laugh, joyful grin, and how she loved to dance. Meri will be missed by so many and holds a special place in my heart.

Rick and Peggy, my heart breaks for you as I send you warm wishes of strength on the breeze. I remember being so taken by your sweet daughters and their adorable little personalities as we gathered at Gramma Betty's years ago. Such sweet and loving little girls. May they comfort each other in the heavens and stay alive in our hearts forever.
Love, Cousin Kathy

“ Mary

Was always a good kid and called me her candy uncle because when I visited I would bring candy and spend a little time with the Girls. I loved her dearly. Uncle Ken
