

Myrtle Lorene Love

February 18, 1927 - December 16, 2012

Myrtle Lorene Love, 85, of Jacksonville passed away Sunday, December 16, 2012 at Jacksonville Medical Center. Mrs. Love is survived by two children, Eric Love (Beverly) and Tonya Love all of Jacksonville; and two grandchildren, Matt Love of Jacksonville and Brittany Love of Franklin, Tennessee. Mrs. Love was a Jacksonville resident and was a member of and faithfully attended West Side Baptist Church for many years. She was a loving mother and grandmother, was always optimistic and always had a smile and a hug for everyone she met. She was preceded in death by her husband, Clyde V. Love. Memorial contributions may be made to West Side Baptist Church, 713 W. Mountain Street N.W., Jacksonville, AL 36265. Memorial services will be announced in early January. Thompson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

SN

“ During my college days at J.S.U. I had lunch on several occasions at the Love house. Myrtle was an excellant cook but more important was a good mother and wife.A nicer person I have never met.My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

Steve Nix - June 20, 2018 at 04:50 PM