

Myrtle Chapman Young

December 30, 1928 - January 20, 2024

Myrtle Chapman Young, 95, of Hokes Bluff, passed away Saturday, January 20, 2024 at Piedmont Health Care Center. Mrs. Young was born December 30, 1928 to Homer and Effie Chapman in Dale County, Alabama. She was preceded in death by her husband, Carlis Eugene Young; parents, Homer and Effie Chapman; four siblings, Clarence Chapman, Paul Chapman, Frankie Chapman and Mavis Marker; and a son-in-law, Gary Reeves. She is survived by her son, Ron Eugene Young (Cathy); and three daughters, Carolyn Reeves, Betty Morgan (Donnie) and Sherry Davis; 14 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; and 9 great-great-grandchildren. A private graveside service will be held by the family. Special thanks to Piedmont Health Care Center and Southern Care New Beacon for their loving care and also to Dr. Michael Burgess, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Piedmont, for his visits, special prayers and comforting words. The family request in lieu of flowers that donations in her memory be made to St. Jude Childrens Research Hospital.

“ My sweet mother, I miss you already just knowing you aren't there. I will forever be grateful for your love and dedicated care. You were an inspiration, model of strength that taught me more about endurance, to keep trying hard through adversity and moving forward. You displayed that very characteristic every day. I love you ❤️ beyond measure with much admiration that gave me hope in the hardest time of my life. You will live on in my memories of you that I have stored up of you. Happy # 95 in heaven Mom.I will be seeing you soon. ❤️ Your Babygirl, Sherry

“ I've known Miss Myrtle my entire life. She was a very concerned next door neighbor for over 10 years and was very instrumental in saving my sweet Pebbles from a certain death on the highway. I will always be grateful to her. My love and condolences go out to her family 🙏❤️🙏
