“ Aunt Peggy, You were such a warm, loving and caring Aunt, Mother, Sister and Friend to all. What wonderful times I had coming down to Piedmont with Mom and Dad on vacation. I'll never forget you coming up to Michigan when Dad got bad and staying in the hospital room with Mom and us children till he was called to heaven. We are all sad to have you leave us but the Joy and Love I know you received from Grandma, Grandpa Fullerton and all your Brothers and Sisters when you entered in to Heaven. I know Mom baked a beautiful cake for you and Aunt Virginia and Uncle Paul sang and yodel your favorite hymns. R.I.P. Aunt Peggy. Love, CandyBarbra, Charles and Phillip you are in my prayers. Love you all

“ My memories of Aunt Peggy go back to the 60s when I was fortunate to visit the Kirk family during summer vacations. Aunt Peggy was usually in the kitchen cooking delicious "southern food" which always included biscuits.

I will always remember Aunt Peggy's beautiful smile and Southern Hospitality. My prayers go out to Charles, Barbara, Phillip and their families.

Love, Sue (Martin) Wood
