“ Mildred & family-So shocked to hear about the loss of such a kind gentleman. I will always think of him as our "mail-man", we kids would get on the door steps ( just a short step away from our mail box) we pretended we were selling "produce" There were 3 of us. We would run up to the car to ask if he wanted to buy some apples, or grapes.or peaches we had picked that day. He would always say I guess I could use some of that, then hand us a quarter's worth of change. The "produce" was really rough stuff but he always was our best and usually our only customer. He made these 3 poor kids day. I cried when he retired. He will greatly missed by many people I am certain. May God comfort you in the days ahead, love to all Tonya Tierce Pike
