“ Ms Ramona will be missed. She was such a sweet and dear lady. My fondest memories were chatting on the phone to catch up on things. She was also instrumental in starting the ladies WMU back at her church, where she also taught Sunday School for a period of time. Those that knew her loved her, as we do. Our thoughts are with you Michelle- she really loved and depended on you. ❤️

My mother Ramona forgot that I was divorced and I have been her daughter all along. She has a granddaughter Audrey, a grandson named Scott and a grandson named Donald that she said she loved, also she has great-grandchildren named Casey a girl, Jordan a boy, and Bonnie a girl, Sonnie a boy, a boy named Bohdi. We all do miss her and wished we had more time and love with her.
