

Randy Clanton

May 28, 1953 - November 23, 2017

Randy Clanton, 64, of Hokes Bluff passed away Thursday, November 23, 2017 at Gadsden Regional Medical Center . A memorial service will be Saturday, December 02, 2017 at 11:00 at Midway Baptist Church with the Rev. Matt Griffith officiating. Friends will be encouraged to tell a story about Randy or if you rather write it down someone else will read it. After the church memorial, there will be a procession of old vintage cars and trucks and anyone else that would like to follow to the Big Oak Garage where there will be a celebration of life . There, family and friends will have a meal and have fellowship with one another. Randy is survived by his loving wife of 43 years, Brenda Clanton of Hokes Bluff and many dear friends. He was a resident of Etowah County most of his life and a member of Midway Baptist Church. He loved antiques cars and was a member of the Gadsden Street Rod Association, Bama Classics, Rainbow City Hot Rod Club and the NSRA. He was employed by Ina Black Reality and has been a bus driver for 18 years for the Etowah County Board of Education. He was preceded in death by his parents, Tommy and Mae Clanton.

“ Brenda, May the Lord comfort and sustain you through this difficult time. Randy and you have always been special to our family. I spent the first five years of my life living next door to Randy and playing daily in his back yard. He will definitely be missed. May the Lord grant you peace and the many pleasant memories be a source of joy to you. In Christ, Mike and V.V. and Coy Davis
