“ Ray along with his friend Don, myself and my husband were together on a cruise to Alaska 2015. We have known Ray for a long time but this was the first time we got to spend a week with him. I have known Janus since I was 5 1/2 years old. Ray is a Southern Gentleman through and through. He was truly a blessing to be with on the ship. He always made sure my husband and I had what we needed at the table, he was so kind and had a heart of gold. I thought the world of him and I know Janus is going to be lost but I pray she finds comfort. He was truly a Christian man and I know he is receiving his reward in Heaven. You will be missed her. But we are glad you are not sick anymore. Rest In Peace our friend, we love you, Chris and Gary Wheeler

Janus, you will be in our prayers. Gary was Ray's 1st cousin. They played together as small kids, ate together after church. Ray's Dad & Gary's Mother were brother & sister. Many of the Pope cousins were together many times. A loving family produces loving children! Although we did not get to see him as much as we'd like to have seen him, when we did get together kindness & joy was felt! We will miss him very much, but we'll see him in Heaven again one day! 💙💚💛🙏
