“ Oh how sad my heart is to know that I have to do this world without my sweet brother by my side. He has always been one of the greatest parts of my life. I watched him all of my life put others ahead of himself. He was a kind and gentle man. RIP Rick until we meet again, you will forever be in my heart. Your sister, Wanda 🇺🇸

I will always love and miss my Uncle Rick! Since we grew up together I was very close to my wonderful Uncle. He loved all his nieces and nephews the same way. We all missed him during the years he was away in the Marines and making a life. We all were thrilled when he and his family moved home to Alabama. We all are so blessed and thankful to spend a few years with him and his family. My heart still hurts for his precious daughter Lani and his grandchildren and sweet Aunt Peggy and his step daughter. He was my mother Joyce Tierce Watsons youngest brother. She was very upset to hear he had passed. RIP until we meet again to a wonderful Uncle! ❤️

“ Truly ,this was a man that will be missed by all that had the honor of knowing him. His contribution to his country, family, and friends speaks volumes of who he was. Richard was a man of honor and had a servants heart. I have witnessed the love he had for all his family especially his grandchildren. Now it is time to rest sweet cousin. We will see you in a short while.
