“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I remember playing with all of you outside when our Grandmothers were neighbors. Brian you are like a brother, if you need anything or the rest of the family need anything, please let me know. I understand what the passing of a loved one unexpectedly is like. Take care of yourselves. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Monique

“ This is a hard pill to swallow. I grew up with Ricky, and count myself fortunate to call him my friend. My heart breaks for his family, I know you're lost right now, and trying to find your way, in this very dark hour. May you all find comfort in knowing that Ricky is not merely gone away, but gone ahead, and in Glory, he awaits us all.
