“ I have very fond memories of Roy Jr. (as we always called him) growing up. He was a constant presence at church and a source of inspiration for me as a youngster. He was one of the kindest and most genuine men around. He was always smiling and had a way of making others smile. He has been a blessing in my life and I am grateful for the love and example that he showed me growing up. I admired his faith as a devout Christian and the many lives he influenced by his example. He will truly be missed. My prayers go out to you Eddy, Robby, Paul and the rest of his precious family. May God bless and comfort you all during this difficult time.

“ I knew Roy Jr. growing up in the 60's. I'm Billy Fagan's 1st cousin so we were like family. We played hard and worked hard on the farm. I learned what real work was. Working in the hay fields, cleaning out chicken houses or on cattle drives with Roy and Billy. It was hard work and a learning experience.

The Williams family always treated me like one of their own and I learned good family values. Those fond memories, values and work ethics I've carried with me. Roy was a good influence. We were like brothers in those days. RIP brother.

“ Roy graduated in our class of '67 from PHS. We spent about an hour sitting together in 2015 watching football, talking about our kids, farming and Alaska. Roy was one of the good guys in life and I just wish I could have spent more time with him. RIP.
