“ Shelba loved life and had friends in several states. Now she is living the abundant life eternally. Katie, Shelba loved you so very much as she mentioned you to me often. She loved the Lord and told me she was ready to go home sometime ago. I find comfort in that. We remember her offering to help with Elizabeth during the illness she is going through. Her heart was truly big. I will miss her e-mails we exchanged regularly. We will miss her but shall soon see her again. Warren, may God comfort and under gird you with His Love and Might now and in the days ahead.

My memories of this women are fabulous. She kept my family and me laughing when our kids were young. Such an enthusiastic mother. I can still hear her saying, "Knock that ball a winding." The last few years were hard on her, and God gained a great lady.
