

Sherry Denise Studdard

March 14, 1965 - August 16, 2018

Sherry Studdard left this world on August 16, 2018. She was surrounded by her parents, her daughter, and daughter-in-law as she left her body. She loved Alabama football, her dogs and granddogs, and music. Material things didn't matter much to Sherry, but her favorite thing in the world was Mountain Dew.

She is survived by her parents, Mack and Carolyn Studdard of Piedmont. She is also survived by her children, whom she thought of as her tribe: daughter Ashleigh Studdard (Maria Currais), sons Kory Williams (Tracy McMahan) and Aiden Taylor. She was a fierce defender of her siblings: Stacey Preston (Larry), Steven Studdard (Maryann), and Desiree Parris (Marlin Holsemback). Her pets were also family: dogs Max and Buck, and cats Stevie. She loved her nieces and nephews and they loved her: Kady, Aubrey, Mason, Jacob, MJ, Ravyn, and special great-niece Savannah.

A Celebration of Life Through Song will be held on Saturday, August 18 at Thompson Funeral Home in Piedmont, AL. Family will be received privately at 2PM, with public visitation from 3PM til 5pm. Our celebration of Sherry's life will begin directly after at 5PM. In lieu of flowers, we ask that you make donations to the Triple R Project in Anniston or your nearest animal shelter.
