“ Shirley was such a wonderful person., a pleasure to be with. I know she will be missed by her family and many friends. I think I fall into both categories!!! And we aren't even related by blood. Please know that even though I can't be there I am thinking about all of you. I know Gods comforting love is with you.

“ Miss Shirley will be greatly missed. I grew up in her home as a family friend of her daughters. I can remember her giggle and how she would girl talk with us. She was warm, loving and usually smiling. I hold her family in my heart during this loss.
